CHARTER

THIS CHARTER WITNESSETH THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF THE NETHERLANDS ANTILLES hereby grants to the ST. MARTINUS UNIVERSITY LTD. the authority to establish a FACULTY (School of Medicine) in the Netherlands Antilles on the island of Curaçao for the teaching of medicine with the right also to confer Degrees of Doctor of Medicine to students who have successfully completed the required number of years of study.

This document should however not be considered as a statement of accreditation of said school's academic program. Graduates of the St. Martinus University of the Netherlands Antilles will become eligible for licensing in the Netherlands Antilles when the following conditions are met:

- Acceptance by the Immigration Department
- Granting of a working permit
- Completion of an approved program at a medical school recognized by the Netherlands Antilles
- Acceptance by the medical licensing board, which is regulated by the Landsverordening op de Uitoefening van de Geneeskunde (Law on the Practice of Medicine), December 19, 1958, no. 154.

This Charter replaces the Charter of november 7, 2000, no. 10, 2788/JAZ and shall come into force on December 29, 2000.
